

- (i) he/she has attended a minimum of two-thirds of the total number of lectures delivered in the Term in which he/she has been admitted as a regular student; and
- (ii) he/she has submitted term paper for class discussion in each course and the teacher teaching the course is satisfied with the paper and its presentation in the class.

Note: (1) The term 'lectures' will include lectures and discussion classes.

- (2) In determining the exact number of the minimum requisite attendance, i.e. two thirds of lectures and discussion classes, fractions shall be ignored.

No student shall be permitted to appear in the examination of any Term unless he/she has presented term paper in each of the courses of the Term for class discussion and the teacher teaching each course issues a certificate that the paper and its presentation by the student was to his/her satisfaction.

Provided that this requirement shall not be applicable to the compulsory Foundation Course in "Legal and Social Science Research Methods".

Provided further that the Dean may, in his discretion, exempt a student of the above requirement in exceptional cases of hardship.

10. Promotion Rules

- (i) No student shall be promoted to the next Term, if he/she has been detained in the examination for shortage of attendance and/or non-submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and had failed to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.
- (ii) Subject to sub-rule (i) above, a student of LL.M. First or Third Term of Two-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Second or Fourth Term, respectively irrespective of the number of courses in which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the First or Third Term examinations.
- (iii) Subject to sub-rules (i) and (ii) above, a student of LL.M. Second Term in Two-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Third Term if he/she has passed in at least four papers of First and Second Term examinations taken together.
- (iv) Subject to sub-rule (i) above, a student of LL.M. First, Third or Fifth Term of Three-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Second, Fourth or Sixth Term, respectively irrespective of the number of courses in which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the First, Third or Fifth Term examinations.
- (v) Subject to sub-rules (i) and (iv) above, a student of LL.M. Second Term in Three-Year course shall be eligible for promotion to Third Term if he/she has passed in at least two papers of First and Second Term examinations taken together and a student of Fourth Term shall be eligible for promotion to Fifth Term if he/she has passed in at least four papers of First, Second, Third and Fourth Term examinations taken together.
- (vi) Subject to above sub-rules, a student may be permitted to submit Dissertation at the end of Fourth Term in case of two-year course or Sixth Term in case of three-year course, on a topic approved by the Faculty of Law irrespective of number of courses which he/she has failed to pass or failed to appear in the examination.

Note :- The students eligible for admission to III/V Term must seek admission not later than two weeks from the date(s) of announcement of the results of LL.M. II/IV Term annual examinations or within one week of commencement of teaching, whichever is later, failing which they will forfeit their right to be admitted to III/V Term.

11. Re-admission Rules

- (i) There shall be no re-admission in the LL.M. First Term under any circumstances including detention of a student for shortage of attendance in that Term and/or non submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and failure to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.
- (ii) A student who has been detained for shortage of attendance or otherwise in Second, Third, Fourth or Fifth Term shall be eligible for re-admission in the Term in which he/she had been detained provided (a) he/she seeks re-admission within the date prescribed by the Dean, Faculty of Law which will not be later than one week from commencement of teaching in that Term; (b) his/her conduct has been satisfactory; and (c) he/she shows sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Dean, Faculty of Law for his/her discontinuance of studies or for not having put in the requisite percentage of attendance and/or non-submission of written paper in all the courses offered by him/her for class discussion and failure to get certificate from the teacher teaching the course.
- (iii) An applicant who has failed in examination or failed to appear at the examination and who is otherwise eligible to appear at the examination as an ex-student, shall not be admitted as a regular student. In exceptional cases, however, where such an applicant is a foreigner, studying under the Cultural Scholarship Scheme of the Government of India, etc., re-admission may be allowed.
- (iv) In respect of an applicant seeking re-admission, his previous record shall be carefully scrutinized.

12. Pass percentage

In order to be eligible for LL.M. Degree, a student must have passed (i.e. secured 50% marks) in each of the courses offered by him/her and in addition he/she must have secured at least 50% marks in the Dissertation.

13. Span Period

Subject to the provisions contained in the Ordinance relating to ex-students as in force from time to time, a student must clear all the courses offered in all the Terms within a span period of five years from the date of admission to first year of the LL.M. Two-Year course and within six years in case of LL.M. Three-Year course. No student shall be admitted as a candidate for any LL.M. examination after five or six years, as the case may be, from the date of admission to the first year of the course.
